

BUDAPEST SIGHTSEEING TOUR, EXCURSION TO THE DANUBE BEND WITH MEDIEVAL SHOW AND LUNCH.

This bus tour starts from your hotel first some highlights of Budapest will be visited, like the Parliament, the great ring road, UNESCO world heritage sight Andrassy Street and Heroes' Square with the City Park. On the way out of the city, we will pass by the ruins of Aquincum, once an eastern-border fortification of the Roman Empire. Just outside of town we reach Szentendre, often called "the colony of artists", the most visited attraction of the Danube Bend. This small town is remarkable and popular for its mediterranean atmosphere and colourful architecture, its baroque houses, narrow streets, beautiful churches, several famous museums, nice cafés and souvenir shops. After a walk together you will also have free time to discover the beauties of this remarkable little town. For lunchtime, we arrive at Visegrád's Salamon Tower to enjoy and attend a medieval knight-show followed by a great lunch also in the style of the Middle Ages. The next highlight of the tour, after lunch, will be the Esztergom

Basilica, the largest church in Hungary which is the main church of the Archdiocese of Esztergom-Budapest and the seat of the Catholic Church in Hungary. From here we head back to Budapest and, as closing of the conference and this remarkable day, we are going to enjoy the unforgettable evening view of Budapest from the Citadell on Gellert Hill.
